

Brandis, Anthony John (Tony) Dr

Joined the Forests Department at Harvey Inventory & Planning Office in late 1970s, previously a school teacher. Promoted to Technical Officer in 1980. Training Officer in Dwellingup in 1986. District Forester (Training) in Harvey 1988, promoted to Assistant Manager (Training and Development) in Human Resources Branch. Senior Environmental Officer in Environmental Protection Branch, based at Harvey in 2001.

Appointed to the Western Australia's Pastoral Lands Board (October 2005). The Department of CALM's senior environmental officer Dr Tony Brandis has been appointed as the deputy to the conservation member - replacing Denise True, who had been a deputy on the board for 4 years.

The Conservation Commission was formed in November 2000 to replace the National Parks and Nature Conservation Authority. Outgoing members (January 2012) were Patricia Barblett AM, Graeme Rundle, Carolyn Turner, Vince Paparo, Dr Tony Brandis and Karen Jacobs.

Now environmental consultant. Lived near Harvey.