

Graham, Lloyd Wilson

Born in Perth, son of Herbert Ernst and Norma Wilson Graham. Educated at Christian Brothers College Leederville. Commenced Bachelor of Forests degree at University of WA in 1959 (with Roger Underwood) but changed to Commerce. Worked for a short period (with Tom Woods) in Mundaring Forests Department. Worked as a draftsman in Head Office, for a short period, before resigning 26.8.1960. Worked in Canberra and Mobil Oil Company Perth. Executive Director Department of State Services WA in 1980s. Former Chairman of WA Government's State Supply Commission and later a private consultant in Government Administration in WA and NSW. In 2005 appointed as member of new WA State Administrative Tribunal. Married Scarlett, Joan, she was a teacher in Perth. Married Dixon, Myriam in Perth. Has lived in NSW since about 2000.