

Gray, H R (based on John Sclater's book (2001) "Lost your block. The origin of W.A.s forest block names")

Bachelor of Arts and Diploma of Forestry from Adelaide University ? Graduated c1922. Appointed to temporary position with WA Forests Department in 1923. Resigned 1927 to become a lecturer with Australian Forestry School 1927-46. Topics covered included silviculture, botany, mensuration, forest products, protection. Gray block named after him.