

Neal, John (based on Conservation News 2006)

Joined the Forests Department in 1981, after several years with the Department of Fisheries and Wildlife. Worked in Manjimup on a wide range of research projects related to fire, silviculture and monitoring. Involved in two major collaborative research projects with the CSIRO, Project Aquarius and Project Vesta. Was research centre safety officer for several years. Developed a driver education program. Retired 2006.