

Penfold, Simon (from Linked In)

Simon has completed a Diploma of Forestry, Melbourne University_Bachelor of Forest Science 1981 – 84 and a Masters of Business Administration. Has worked for a number of forestry companies including Willmott Forests, Pentarch Forest Products, Hancock Victorian Plantations, Victorian Plantations Corporation and the WA Dept of Conservation and Land Management. Appointed CALM Afforestation Manager at Manjimup in 1989. Director African Mahogany Australia_2006 – . Director Australian New Energy 2008 – .

Has over 30 years experience in the Australian forest industry and has extensive experience in executive management and all operational facets of developing, maintaining, harvesting and exporting of plantation products.

Member of numerous professional associations including the Institute of Foresters of Australia and the Australian Institute of Company Directors.