

Sanders, John (notes mainly contributed by Roger Underwood)

Graduated from Dwellingup Forestry Cadet School in 1965. Worked for the Forests Department for a few years, in the Pemberton area, then joined WA Chip and Pulp as their first forester where he pioneered blue gum plantations. He later headed up Bunnings Treefarms, WA's first private forestry organisation. Also involved in provision of tours in the Pemberton area.