INTRODUCTION & ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Family tree data is based on incomplete information, with some guesswork. Please advise me of omissions and errors. This booklet is one of a series intended to culminate in the publication of a Heberle book in 2005.

| Year      | Intended publication                                   | Progress |

This booklet and family tree data has been typed in English. As such, umlauts (German) and graves (French) are difficult to type. Most Heberles have an umlaut ("") over the a = (ä) (this is often typed as ae in English) and many French Heberles have graves(/) over one or both e's = (é). In general, umlauts and graves have not been used, but may be inserted in a future revision.

This set of Heberle family trees has been compiled from the following sources (as at 15.5.2002):
